

Short bio

Luca Saltalamacchia is a civil lawyer, qualified to practise before the Supreme Court; he mainly deals with climate, environmental and human rights litigation.

In recent years, he has initiated several litigations before Italian courts or the Italian and Dutch National Contact Point for OECD Guidelines against Italian companies.

He is the founder of the "Rete Legalità per il Clima" (Legality for Climate Network), a network of lawyers dealing with the interrelationship between law and climate change.
