

CURRICULUM VITAE – Franco Palazzi

Current Position

October 2024-: Postdoctoral Researcher in Political Theory, Maastricht University, Philosophy Department (Research project “Contours of a Non-Oligarchic Democratic Future”)

Previous Positions

February-September 2024: Post-Doc Researcher in Philosophy, University of Florence, Italy (Research project “Science in times of emergency: the role of scientific knowledge in policy-making during crises”).

Education

2019-2023: Ph.D. in Philosophy, University of Essex (viva passed with only typographical corrections on April 18th, award conferred on May 11th, 2023. Supervisor: Dr. Lorna Finlayson; External Examiner: Dr. Koshka Duff [University of Nottingham]; Internal Examiner: Dr. Jörg Schaub. Dissertation Title: A Political Philosophy of Anger)

2017-2019 M.A. in Philosophy, New School for Social Research, New York (GPA: 4.0/4.0)

2012-2016: Allievo ordinario (honors student) in Political Science, Sant’Anna School of Advanced Studies, Pisa (average mark: 30/30).

2012-2016: B.A. in Political Science (110/110 with honors), University of Pisa, Italy.

2007-2012: High School Diploma (100/100 with honors), Liceo classico “E.Duni”, Matera, Italy.

Graduate coursework:

- Capitalism Vs. Nature (Nancy Fraser)
- Tragedy’s Philosophy (Simon Critchley)
- Race Critical and Decolonial Sociology (Alana Lentin)
- Modern Deductive Logic (Ian Grubb)
- Gender and Its Discontents (Chiara Bottici)
- Critical Theories of Contemporary Capitalism (Sandro Mezzadra)
- Radical Political Thought (Chiara Bottici and Dmitri Nikulin)
- Foucault and Subjectivity (Simona Forti)
- Marx’s Grundrisse and Their Interpretations (Cinzia Arruzza and Nancy Fraser)
- Rights: Natural/Human/Positive (Jay Bernstein)

Scholarships

2019: AHRC CHASE Studentship for a PhD in Philosophy at the University of Essex (covering tuition fees for the entire PhD duration)

2017: Dean's Fellowship (5-year tuition fees) for a graduate program in Philosophy, New School for Social Research, New York (worth approximately $ 36000 per year at 2017 rates).

2016: SPAH Masters Fee Waiver (£5950) for an MA in Philosophy, University of Essex [awarded but not accepted due to health problems].

2012: Successful candidate (ranked 1st out of about 400 participants) in a national competition for full scholarships (tuition fees and full living expenses) at Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies.

Research grants, fellowships and awards

2019: Outstanding MA Graduate Award, New School for Social Research.

2018-2019: Robert L. Heilbroner Center for Capitalism Studies Graduate Fellowship, New School for Social Research, New York ($5660).

2017-2018: 1000 Euros awarded by the Public Ethics research group (Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies) for a project on intergenerational ties between philosophy (applied ethics, biopolitics) and economics (game theory, political economy) (with Silvio Ravaoli).