

Ismaeel Dawood - CV

Ph.D. in Politics, Human Rights, and Sustainability with a specialization in Research Institutions and Mechanisms for the Protection of Human Rights possessing a deep understanding of human rights in the Middle East and North Africa (MENA) region.

Expertise in water policy, with a focus on addressing the relation of big infrastructure and climate change causes of water scarcity and its impact on indigenous communities. Committed to preserving cultural heritage related to water and promoting a healthy environment in the Mesopotamia region

Policy Analysis and Development:

Expertise in analyzing policies and recommending revisions from a civil society perspective, fostering policy advocacy, and contributing to positive social change.

Project Management and Design:

Proficient in overseeing projects from conceptualization to completion, ensuring alignment with goals and objectives.

Capacity Building and Training:

Demonstrated success in designing and delivering training programs to enhance skills and knowledge, especially in areas such as good governance, strategic planning, and human rights.

Stakeholder Engagement and Coordination:

Experienced in fostering partnerships and coordinating efforts among diverse stakeholders, including government bodies, civil society organizations, and international agencies.

Donor Relations and Grants Management:

Skilled in negotiating projects with major donors like the EU, UNOPS, UNDP, and others to secure funding.

Multilingual Communication:

Fluent in three languages (Arabic, English, and Italian), enabling effective communication and collaboration with individuals from diverse cultural backgrounds, civil society organizations, and various stakeholders.