

CURRICULUM VITAE

Konstantinos Moschochoritis

Member of the Greek Chamber of Engineers

Education

1991: Degree in Electrical Engineering (5 years), University of Patras, Greece

Key qualifications

- Leadership and team work
- Human Resources management
- Strategic Planning
- Context follow up, operational policymaking, political and operational analysis
- Financial Management
- Security analysis & follow up
- Communication including lobbying and advocacy for priority thematic.
- Management of international and decentralized structures.
- Humanitarian interventions in crisis zones.

Professional experience

2015-now: Director General, INTERSOS Humanitarian Organisation
2014-now: Humanitarian Aid Specialist
2007-2013: General Director, Medecins Sans Frontieres/Doctors Without Borders Italy (MSF Italia Onlus)
2002-2007: Operational Desk Officer, Medecins Sans Frontieres Brussels
2001-2002: Logistics Officer, Medecins Sans Frontieres Brussels
2000-2001: Head of Mission, Medecins Sans Frontieres
1998-2000: Technical Coordinator, Medecins Sans Frontieres
1995-1998: Logistician-Administrator-Field Coordinator, Medecins Sans Frontieres
1992-1995: Site-work engineer, for construction companies

Languages and other skills

Greek: Mother tongue
English: Fluent
Italian: Fluent
Spanish: Fair
French: Fair

Computer: Excellent knowledge of MS Office, E-mail, Internet.
Good knowledge of the Project Cycle Management and logical framework tools.

Detailed working experience

July 2015-now: INTERSOS

Rome, Italy

Director General

Director General of the Italian humanitarian organisation INTERSOS;

January 2014 - present

Rome, Italy

Humanitarian Aid specialist

Planning, implementation and evaluation of humanitarian interventions.

Multi-year planning and strategic orientations for NGOs (MSF-Operational Centre of Bxl, INTERSOS, Interlife). Teaching university courses on various aspects of humanitarian interventions:

- Scuola Superiore Sant'Anna di Pisa-Master of Arts in Human Rights and Conflict Management
- ISPI-Master in International Cooperation
- Università Bicocca - Master in Gestione di Risorse Idriche nella Cooperazione Internazionale -
- Univeristà di Siena - Master in Conflict Management and Humanitarian Action
- EU Civil Protection Mechanism Courses

February 2007 - December 2013: MSF Italy

Rome, Italy

General Director

Responsible for the Italian section of Medecins Sans Frontieres; approximately 70 FTEs and 50.000.000 € annual budget.

- Led, managed and supervised the executive team of the section.
- Implementation of MSF- Italy mission and the orientations defined by the General Assembly and the Board, in the respect of MSF principles and Charter.
- Responsible for elaborating and carrying out the section's policy in its operational and organisational aspects, in a short, middle and long term perspective.
- Responsible for the annual Activity plan, the annual budget, the regular review and reporting on the compliance of the Annual Plan/budget.
- Focal point of the Italian section in terms of security on operations level.
- Representation of the organisation at national level, particularly towards the authorities, the other organisations and the public.
- Field missions during emergencies in Haiti, Iraq, Ethiopia, Jordan, Greece & Italy (migrants' influx).

November 2004 - January 2007: MSF Belgium & Italy

Rome, Italy

Operations Desk Officer

Responsible for the operations of MSF-Belgium in Peru, Colombia, Haiti, Italy, Libya and Ethiopia, with approximately 15 projects (Primary/Secondary Health Care, Nutritional Emergencies, Migrants' Health, HIV-AIDS/TB), on average 80 expatriates, 650 national staff and an annual budget of 12 million €.

- Organisation and development of operational policy and related issues (e.g. funding strategy, communication strategy, budget management, etc...). Ensure the coherence, quality and impact of both long/medium term and emergency programmes.
- Coordination of a 5-member multi-skilled team that supervises and supports the operations in the field.
- Responsible for the funding strategy, including the liaison with all major donors.
- Representation of the organisation and its principles towards external actors including UN bodies, EU services, Governmental ministries in various countries and other International Organisations and NGOs.
- Follow up of drafting and approval of annual tools including – Country policy papers, Annual actions plans, annual budget and Human Resources planning.
- Teaching modules in various courses for MSF expatriates and national staff.
- Security of the international and national staff.
- Following of the political, economic and socio-medical contexts in Latin and Central America, Caribbean, Horn of Africa, Libya and Italy (with focus on immigration issues).

July 2002 - October 2004: MSF Belgium

Brussels, Belgium

Operations Desk Officer

Responsible for the operations of MSF-Belgium in Liberia, Guinea, Sierra Leone, Ivory Coast & Angola with approximately 30 projects in mainly conflict/post conflict contexts (Primary/Secondary Health Care, War Surgery, Nutritional Emergencies, Refugee/IDP Camps), on average 130 expatriate posts, 2.700 national staff and an annual budget of 26 million €. Duties same as above, referring to West Africa and Angola contexts.

April 2001 - June 2002: MSF Belgium

Brussels, Belgium

Logistics Officer

Responsible for the logistics of the MSF-B missions in Liberia, Guinea, Sierra Leone, Ivory Coast, Angola & Afghanistan.

- Planning, supervision & support of the technical aspects of the operations.
- International supply.
- Planning, implementation and supervision of nutritional interventions, food and non-food items distributions, Refugee/IDP Camps health (structures-wise) and water sanitation interventions.
- Applied security of the missions.
- Transport and communication tools.
- Water & Sanitation in close collaboration with the medical responsible.
- Construction of health and support structures.
- Teaching in technical & security modules for MSF expatriates and national staff.

August 2000 - March 2001: MSF Belgium

Cali, Colombia

Head of Mission

- Representation of MSF to government ministries and organisations and non-government organisations (national and international).
- Development of mission and mission projects (including Rapid Urban Assessments, Focus groups, Exploratory Missions, etc.).
- Design, implementation and supervision of the projects (Sexual & Reproductive Health, Integral Rehabilitation of Victims of Violence).
- Liaison and co-ordination with other MSF sections in country and in South America.
- Fund raising, international and national donor contacts and follow-up.
- Political and contextual follow up and analysis
- Lobbying and advocacy thematic and campaigns - Budget management, financial controller
- Security and administrative management

May 2000 - July 2000: MSF Belgium

Somali region, Ethiopia

Emergency Technical Coordinator

Responsible for the applied security, logistics & food supply and the technical support of the MSF emergency nutritional intervention in Somali region.

- Local supply, reception of international air-cargos, needs assessment and supply planning, storage.
- Transport responsible (cars & plane); airstrip construction.
- Construction & running of Therapeutic & Supplementary Feeding Centres for more than 3.500 children.
- Water supply through water treatment units and wells construction.
- Responsible for the communication tools (VHF-HF radios, satellite phones, cc-Mail data transmission).

September 1999 - March 2000: MSF Belgium

Jakarta, Indonesia

Technical Co-ordinator

Responsible for the security, the logistics supply, water & sanitation and the technical supervision/support of the MSF projects in Wamena (West Papua)/Primary Health Care, Yogyakarta (Java)/Community Water & Sanitation, Ambon-Ternate (Maluku Islands)-Manado-Bitung (North Sulawesi)/support to Internally Displaced Persons due to the conflict in Maluku Islands and the emergency preparedness project for Indonesia. Responsible for the exploratory missions and the opening of the MSF projects in West Timor concerning the influx of the East Timor refugees (approximately 100.000 persons).

June 1999 - August 1999: MSF BelgiumTirana, Albania*Technical co-ordinator

Responsible for the security, the logistics supply water & sanitation and the technical supervision/support of the MSF emergency projects during the Kosovo crisis in Kukes, Fier, Schoder and Vlora.

July 1998 - March 1999: MSF-InternationalMonrovia, Liberia*Construction co-ordinator

Responsible for the construction projects of MSF in Liberia regarding the study of the project, the bidding procedures and the supervision/financial control of its implementation.

Renovation/construction of the District hospitals in Harper, Tumbanberg and Voinjama; the health centres of Salala, Kakata, Fenutolie and Togbapulu.

December 1997 - June 1998: MSF SwitzerlandSalala, Liberia*Project co-ordinator, logistician-administrator

Responsible for the primary health care and nutritional project in Bong and Lower Margibi Counties. The project was covering three health centres, one clinic, one therapeutic feeding centre and two supplementary feeding centres.

February 1997 - October 1997: MSF BelgiumRome, Italy*Logistician-administrator

Nomads camp Casilino 700. Carried out the construction of the water network and roads in the camp; cleaning of the camp, installation of latrines and domestic wastes management; financial - administrative responsible; liaison with Municipality officials, NGOs and camp population concerning the management of the camp; running of workshops for teenagers to facilitate their integration into Italian society.

November 1996 - January 1997: UNHCR branch officeAthens, Greece*Field monitoring officer

Iraqi Kurds refugee camp of Agios Andreas. Carried out: close follow up of all matters regarding delivery of food and non-food assistance to the dwelling place. UNHCR focal point for matters regarding the camp administration with focus on logistics, housing, sanitation/water and liaison with the asylum seekers/refugees. Ensured that minimum standards of dignified and safe conditions were met in the camp with particular focus on vulnerable groups such as children, women, and the disable.

September 1995 - June 1996: MSF GreeceNoyemberian, Armenia*Logistician-administrator

Responsible for the technical-administrative and financial aspects of Noyemberian project which was dealing with the support to the regional hospital, the city polyclinic and 18 rural health structures. Carried out the rehabilitation of the regional hospital, polyclinic and six main health structures. Reparation of the water network of the town, installation of telephone lines for direct communication between the health structures, reparation and maintenance of the ambulances and medical instruments.

Oct. 1992 - August 1995: Callicratis Construction Company Pyrgos Ilias, Greece

Construction engineer, administration responsible and legal representative of the company for projects such as: water networks, telecommunication networks, roads construction; coal excavation and transportation in open mines, sanitary burial of urban waste.

- Completing and submitting tender documents.
- Preparation, implementation/supervision and technical follow-up of the construction projects.
- Liaison and coordination with the relevant public authorities.
- Financial and administrative responsible.
- Staff management; Management of machinery.

Publications

Title of publication : A social health model supporting undocumented immigrants in Italy
Date of publication : 09/2009
Name of publisher : European Journal TM & IH
Publication's web address : <http://www.festmih.eu/document/2218>

Title of publication : 3rd Report of the Italian Global Health Watch Global Health and Development Assistance Rights, Ideologies and Deceit
Date of publication : 07/2009
Name of publisher : Edizione ETS
Publication's web address : www.mediciconlafrica.org/en/images/stories/mediciconlafrica/educazione/core_activities/inform

Title of publication : Right to health care for vulnerable migrants
Date of publication : 09/2007
Name of publisher : The Lancet
Publication's web address : Right to health care for vulnerable migrants

Title of publication : Evidence basis for antimalarial policy change in Sierra Leone: five in vivo efficacy studies of chloroquine, sulphadoxine–pyrimethamine and amodiaquine
Date of publication : 01/2005
Name of publisher : Tropical Medicine & International Health
Publication's web address : <http://onlinelibrary.wiley.com/doi/10.1111/j.1365-3156.2004.01367.x/full>

Autorizzo il trattamento dei miei dati personali ai sensi del Regolamento UE n.679/2016 e del Dlgs 2003 n. 196 e successive modificazioni.