Ph.D. in Emerging Digital Technologies	Prof. Luca Valcarengi	6
Ph.D. in Health Sciences	Prof. Michele Emdin	4

The number of positions may be increased if additional funding becomes available (even as result of agreements or apprenticeship contracts) before Programmes start. Moreover, funding of some positions could be bound to specific research topics.

Each Ph.D. Course could reserve one or more positions for eligible candidates in the ranking list who belong to the categories set out in the Ministerial Decree nr. 226 of 14 December 2021 at the art. 8, parr. 2 and 4.

Further information about the positions can be found in the information sheets of each Ph.D. Programme annexed to this Call for each Ph.D. Course.

In accordance with the Italian regulations (Ministerial Decree nr. 226 of 14 December 2021) the Ph.D. courses are activated by the Universities every year only upon approval of the Ministry of Universities and Research (MUR) after verification that the required standards are respected and maintained, i.e. the accreditation process is successful. Therefore, after the publication of the final ranking list, the successful candidates will be enrolled only if the aforementioned accreditation has been received for the 38th cycle.

Article 2

(Application requirements)

Candidates with the academic qualifications set forth below may apply for the above Ph.D. positions, regardless of their citizenship:

- a) "laurea Specialistica/Magistrale" (Italian University degree 3+2 years or combined degrees);
- b) "laurea Vecchio Ordinamento" (Italian University degree, obtained before 1999, with a legal course of at least 4 years);
- c) non-Italian Second Cycle Degree (Master's Degree or Single Cycle Degree) awarded by an academic institution equivalent to the above mentioned degrees.

The foreign degree must have been awarded by an officially recognized academic institution, that fulfils the requirements for admission to Ph.D. studies in the country it was awarded, and that is equivalent in length, level and subject to the required Italian title.

The eligibility of the foreign degree is verified by the Committee according to the laws and regulations in force in Italy and in the country where the degree was awarded, as well as to the treaties and international agreements concerning the mutual recognition of titles for pursuing doctoral studies.

Applicants who will obtain their academic qualification by the 30th September 2022 may also be admitted to the selection process. Nevertheless, those, who will not obtain their academic qualification within the date aforementioned, will be not admitted to Ph.D. Courses.

Candidates holding a qualification obtained in Italy

All candidates holding an academic qualification obtained at an Italian University, whether they are EU citizens or citizens of Non-European Union Countries, are required to self-certify their qualification and are eligible for the selection process subject to verification of the self-certified declarations.

Candidates holding a qualification obtained abroad (EU and NON-EU Countries)

By the date of enrollment must be delivered to the Ph.D. Office the documentation relating to the foreign degree duly translated and legalized along with a Declaration of Value, issued by the competent Italian Consulate/Embassy in the Country where the qualification was obtained. Alternatively, the candidate can submit the Statement of Comparability of the foreign title issued by ENIC_NARIC in Italy (CIMEA). The statement must contain all the necessary information to allow a proper evaluation of the title. If the foreign title was obtained in an EU country the Diploma Supplement will suffice.

Applicants having already awarded a doctoral degree issued by an Italian University, or having benefitted from a scholarship for the attendance of a Ph.D. course in Italy (even though for a sole instalment) cannot apply for the above Ph.D. positions.

Article 3

(Application submission)

The application, one for each Ph.D. programme which candidates wish to apply for, must be submitted electronically by using the specific procedure available in the dedicated section of the School website https://sssup.esse3.cineca.it/Home.do?cod_lingua=eng before the deadline specified in each Ph.D. programme annex to the call.

The application procedure consists of the following steps:

1. registration of personal data on the website;
2. insertion of data and documents requested by the online procedure

Candidates are required to fill in the application and state under their own responsibility:

- a) surname, name, place and date of birth, nationality;
- b) to hold the academic qualification set forth in article 2 above, specifying the degree programme, its duration and the University or Institution of Higher Education having issued it;
- c) the final mark obtained in the MSc degree, specifying the maximum possible mark and the degree award date;
- d) the expected MSc degree award date, for those not yet graduated;
- e) the curriculum chosen, if the Programme envisages more than one;
- f) the Skype contact details. The interview may also be carried out by using electronic communication tools for;
- g) e-mail address, mandatory for competition-related correspondence.

The following may use the self-certification process:

- Italian and EU citizens;
- Citizens of Non-European Union Countries who are legal residents in Italy, only as regards personal qualities and facts which can be certified or attested by Italian public bodies.

People with disabilities should attach a note to the application for taking part in the competition, applying for the assistance they require throughout the competition in relation to their disability, as well as for any extra time needed.

The documents specified in the individual Ph.D. Programme information sheets should be attached to the application form (in PDF format), under penalty of exclusion.

The School may perform checks on the truthfulness of the declarations and documents submitted, at any time during the procedure, including after the start of the Programmes, and may request that the original documents be produced. In the event of false declarations, the School may order the exclusion of candidates from the selection procedure or from the Programme at any time, by the substantiated decision of the Rector, without prejudice to the criminal liability deriving from the same.

According to art. 7, par. 4, of School's Code of Ethics, should a candidate taking part in a selection procedure be up to a 4th degree relative or 2nd degree relative-in-law of a member of the teaching, technical-administrative or research staff, he/she must give written notice of his/her kinship prior to the start of the selection procedures. The competent office will then inform the Board of Ethics, which will monitor the selection procedure.

Article 4

(Selection Committee and test examinations)

1. The Selection Committee for admission to the Ph.D. Programmes is appointed by decree of the Rector and its composition will be available on the School's website. The Committee may appoint sub-committees which may carry out their duties via online meetings, while still guaranteeing safe and trackable communications, as required by law.

The candidate selection and assessment methods and criteria for drawing up the ranking lists are specified in the information sheets annexed here to.

Article 5

(Admission to the Ph.D. Programme and entrance of students)

Successful candidates are admitted to the Ph.D. programme according to the ranking list and subject to availability of the positions subject to the competition.

The ranking lists, approved by decree of the Rector, are published on the School website. Publication constitutes an official communication.

In case of equal ranking in the assessment phase, preference will be given to the younger candidate. The School reserves the right to assign any positions which become available as a result of candidates renouncing or dropping out, to suitable candidates on the ranking list. Two rank scrolls are provided for:

- first rank scroll, before the beginning of the courses;
- second rank scroll, following the beginning of the courses, within and not beyond the 1st December; in such case, the scroll flow is admitted exclusively with the favorable pronouncement of the teaching body of the relevant course.

The effectiveness of the selection is subject to confirmation by the competent Ministry of University and Research (MUR) of the validation for Academic Year 2022/23 as provided for by art. 5 of Ministerial Decree, nr. 226, 2021.

The start date of the Ph.D. Programmes is 1st October 2022.

NON-EU citizen students should apply for a specific study visa to enter Italy, which is issued by the Italian embassies or consulates in the Country of origin. Students are required to apply for a residence permit for study purposes within eight (8) days of arriving in Italy.

For further information, please go to:

<http://www.santannapisa.it/it/internazionale/welcome-and-support>

In special, justified cases, entrance of students may generally be postponed, to no more than 30 days after the official Programme start date.

On the Programme start date, students should turn up with the following documents at the offices of the School:

- valid identity document;
- duly filled enrolment form (provided by offices);
- only for students with a qualification obtained in a NON-EU and EU country: Declaration of equivalence (or a copy of the application for the same made to the competent authorities), the Statement of Comparability of the foreign title issued by ENIC_NARIC in Italy (CIMEA) or the Diploma Supplement (only for EU qualifications); in case of failure to submit these documents, the Administrative Office will proceed to verify the title contacting the institution that issued it;
- receipt of payment of the regional tax for Right to University Study (DSU) of €140.00 or receipt of the application to the DSU for exemption from payment.

The following categories of individuals are not required to pay the regional tax for the right to University Study:

- a. those who have applied for the scholarship to the Regional Board for the Right to University Study (DSU Toscana) for the academic year 2022/2023 and have not subsequently been successful/eligible in the scholarship ranking list must pay the regional tax for the right to study after the publication of the definitive ranking list by DSU Toscana;
- b. students with certified disabilities, (art. 3, paragraph 1, of Law n. 104/1992) or with a disability equal to or greater than 66%;

c. students whose parents are the beneficiaries of a disability pension (art. 30 of Law n.118/1971);
(for further information on the regional tax, visit the website: <http://www.dsu.toscana.it>)

Art. 6

(Scholarship and other grants)

The scholarships have the duration of the Ph.D. Course of interest and are confirmed on a yearly basis for admission to the subsequent year subject to the decision by the Teaching Board of the individual Programmes.

The scholarships are awarded according to the ranking lists, without prejudice to the scholarships reserved for specific research topics which may be awarded to the first suitable candidate identified by the Selection Board based on the profile/CV.

The yearly scholarship amount is shown for each Ph.D. Programme in the individual information sheets annexed hereto and is paid in deferred monthly instalments.

The scholarships may not be cumulated with other scholarships granted for any reason, with the exception of those granted by national or foreign institutions to enhance the student's research activity with periods of stay abroad.

Those who have taken advantage, even partly, of a Ph.D. scholarship in the past, may not benefit from the scholarship, even in case said benefit refers to one sole instalment.

Students can access the library and the laboratories of the School in the ways provided for by the respective regulations; students may also make use of the canteen for the entire duration of the Programme (26 free meals per month, except for holiday periods provided for by the academic calendar).

The scholarship may be increased as provided for by the Training Activity Regulations for periods of stay abroad authorised by the Teaching Board.

According to art. 9 of D.M. n. 226/2021, the School will also make an annual budget equal to 10% of the scholarship available to all Ph.D. students to cover research activity-related expenses.

The scholarship and grants referred to in this article are subject to the current legislation applicable to scholarships paid by Universities and the Regions for tax and social security purposes.

The School shall insure the students against accidents and third-party insurance for the entire duration of the programme and undertakes to meet the safety conditions with respect to the premises, instruments and equipment used within the programme.

Art. 7

(Obligations of the Ph.D. student)

Students are required to attend the teaching and research activities provided by the School within the Programmes and to fulfil the obligations provided for in the Training Activity Regulations – Book III.

Students also undertake to comply with the rules in the Statute, in the Regulations and Codes of Conduct of the School.

For the protection of health and safety purposes, students shall also:

- fill in the intended occupation form;
- undergo health checks as part of the health monitoring carried out by the Medical Officer of the School;
- take part in scheduled educational and training courses.

Penalties shall be applied in case of failure to fulfil these obligations. These may include prohibition of access to the rooms of the School.
