Programme

MODULE I
- International law, international human rights law, international humanitarian law, geopolitics, business and human rights, HRs philosophical dimensions, theories and techniques of conflict management, career coaching.

INTERNSHIP

THEESIS
- Written dissertation related to the internship experience.

MIN. 3 MONTHS INTERNSHIP/FIELD EXPERIENCE

MODULE II
- International law, international human rights law, international humanitarian law, geopolitics, business and human rights, HRs philosophical dimensions, theories and techniques of conflict management, career coaching.

Why should I apply?

You should apply if you are looking for a professionalizing and mission/field-oriented international master programme offered by an institution with high academic standards in training and research. If your training needs include practical skills, besides relevant theoretical knowledge, as well as internship/field-experience with prestigious international organisations, this academic programme is surely the right choice for you.

KEY FEATURES
- 1 year post-graduate professionalizing and field-oriented programme.
- Interdisciplinary nature of the programme with a methodology characterized by a combination of theory and practice.
- Lecturers and trainers chosen among high level academics, diplomats, international organisations officers and NGOs activists, offering a wealth of both academic and field expertise.
- Mandatory internship/field experience in leading organisations working in the areas of human rights protection/promotion, conflict prevention/resolution, humanitarian assistance or development, either in the field or at Headquarters.
- Career service with specific sessions on career coaching.
- International and multicultural student environment.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

Applicants shall enter their application online at www.humanrights.santannapisa.it.

Applications deadlines are the following:
- 1st round of selection: 3 July 2018
- 2nd round of selection: 18 September 2018

The Master is a competitive programme open to a maximum of 28 candidates. 8 places out of 28 are reserved for non EU candidates. Candidates must meet the following minimum requirements:

1. Have an (at least) three-year university degree or equivalent. Students expecting to graduate before December 31, 2018 are also eligible.
2. Understand, speak and write English at least at LEVEL B2, (CEFR for Languages, CoE).

Why can apply?

The Master is a competitive programme open to a maximum of 28 candidates. 8 places out of 28 are reserved for non EU candidates. Candidates must meet the following minimum requirements:

1. Have an (at least) three-year university degree or equivalent. Students expecting to graduate before December 31, 2018 are also eligible.
2. Understand, speak and write English at least at LEVEL B2, (CEFR for Languages, CoE).

MASTER DIRECTOR

Emanuele Sommarino, Lecturer in International Law at the Scuola Superiore Sant’Anna, is the Director of the Master. Chiara Macchi, Research Fellow in International Human Rights Law, is the Didactic Coordinator.

ACADEMIC CREDITS

A maximum of 66 academic credits will be awarded upon successful completion of the Master Programme.

CAREER SERVICES

The master programme is committed to assist students in finding valuable work experiences and employment contacts at a worldwide level. A regular information service regarding recruitment opportunities within international organisations and NGOs is offered.

TUITION FEE & FACILITIES

The tuition fee for the full programme is 7,500 euros, payable in two installments. It covers the following: attendance costs and participation to field trips, didactic material (in electronic format), tutorship, lunch (on class and exam days), access to all facilities of the Scuola. It does not include accommodation costs in Pisa and during the internship, nor travel or visa-related costs.

An early bird discount is reserved for candidates applying for the first round of selection set on 3rd July 2018. For early birds, the course fee is 6,500,00 euros.

PARTIAL TUITION FEE WAIVERS

A limited number of partial waivers will be made available to citizens of non-OECD countries who are eligible for release of a visa for Italy. Applicants may apply for the partial waiver by motivating their request in detail on their application.
For any additional information
Master in Human Rights and Conflict Management
Scuola Superiore Sant’Anna
Via Cardinale Maffi, 27 - 56126 Pisa (Italy)
Tel. +39 050 882653/55 Fax +39 050 882665
humanrights@santannapisa.it
www.humanrights.santannapisa.it

SCUOLA SUPERIORE SANT’ANNA
The Scuola Superiore Sant’Anna is a public University and a centre of academic excellence which promotes education and research through undergraduate and post-graduate studies and PhD programmes in the field of Social and Applied Sciences. The Master is organised in collaboration with the International Research Laboratory on Global Security and Human Rights and the International Training Programme for Conflict Management of the DIRPOLIS Institute of the Scuola Superiore Sant’Anna.

DESCRIPTION
The Master in Human Rights and Conflict Management is designed to provide students from different cultures and backgrounds with a deep understanding of the linkages between human rights and conflict management theory and practice.

STRUCTURE
The Master is a one-year post-graduate programme. It starts on January 14, 2019 and runs until Spring 2020. The Programme encompasses about 480 hours of classroom lectures and 480 hours of internship, in addition to individual studying and to the preparation of a written thesis. Classroom lectures are usually from Monday to Friday and run from January 2019 to the end of July 2019. The internship lasts three or more months, starting from August/September 2019.

humanrights@santannapisa.it