

Prof. Diego MARCONI – Curriculum vitae

Diego Marconi (Laurea in Filosofia, Torino 1969; PhD, Philosophy, Pittsburgh 1979) is professor of Philosophy of Language at the University of Torino. He previously taught at the University of Cagliari and the University of Eastern Piedmont. He also gave logic and philosophy courses at Pittsburgh, Geneva, Barcelona and the University of the Basque Country. During his graduate studies he was a Harkness Fellow of the Commonwealth Fund (1974-76). At Eastern Piedmont he headed the Humanities Dept. (1997-2001), the philosophy curriculum (1992-95), the communication science curriculum (2001-03), and the Doctoral Program in Philosophy of language (1994-2004). In Torino he has been Chair of the advanced curriculum in Philosophy (2007-09). Until recently he was a member of the Research Observatory of the University of Torino. He is or was a Senior Fellow of the Center for Philosophy of Science at Pittsburgh (1983), NATO-CNR Fellow (1987), Chercheur Associé at CREA (now the Centre Jean Nicod; 1996), Invited Research Scholar at the University of California at Irvine (2004), Visiting scholar at Oxford (2010) and Barcelona (2010). He was President of the Italian Society for Analytic Philosophy (1996-98) and belongs to the Boards of several Italian academic institutions. He was among the founders of the European Society of Analytic Philosophy (1990), being a member of the Society's first Steering Committee. He was a member of the Philosophy panel of ERIH (2005-06). He has been (2011-13) the coordinator of the subpanel of Philosophy of the Italian Evaluation Agency (ANVUR). He belongs to the Editorial Board of several journals (Dialectica, Mind & Society, Eur. J. of Philosophy, Eur. J. for Philosophy of Science, Revue philosophique de Louvain, and others). He was or is a referee for those journals and many others, for the University of Padova and Venice, and for Columbia UP and Oxford UP. He was editor in chief of Dizionario Palazzi-Folena della lingua italiana (with C. Marengo, 1986-92) and the 2nd edition of Enciclopedia Garzanti di Filosofia (with M. Ferraris, 1993). He is a member of the Torino Academy of Sciences and the Academia Europaea. In 2013 he was awarded the Medal for Philosophy of the Italian Society of Neuroethics.
