I. STRUCTURE AND MISSION OF THE DIRPOLIS INSTITUTE
Our mission

The Institute aims to offer its contribution to the academic debate at national and international level, while endeavouring to offer scientifically sound and action-oriented bases for effective decision-making processes. Research outputs are embedded within innovative educational paths at graduate and post-graduate level, aimed at promoting talented students and researchers.

The Institute conducts innovative and interdisciplinary research projects in the fields of law, philosophy and politics. Its main goal is to provide a multi-faceted and exhaustive representation of complex political, legal, economic and social phenomena and to explore credible solutions for current global challenges.

I. STRUCTURE AND MISSION OF THE DIRPOLIS INSTITUTE
Our strong points

- Excellence: in the period 2010-2016 the Institute won 9 PRIN, 1 FIRB, 1 SIR, 2 EU 7thFP Projects, several projects funded by European Union DGs and participated as partner in one successful Horizon2020 application. It has organized research seminars under the Jean Monnet programme; its academic staff published several articles in national and international journals, and many books.

- Interdisciplinarity: the Institute conducts innovative and interdisciplinary research projects in the fields of law, political/moral philosophy and politics and runs numerous research and training activities with the aim of enhancing the existing synergies among its components.

- Internationalization: the Institute has concluded partnerships with important universities, institutions and international research centres. A high number of foreign students have been trained in the post-graduate training courses and Ph.D programmes delivered by the Institute (in 2015, 281 out of 501 students of post-graduate training courses were foreigners).
The value of our activities

Every year the DIRPOLIS Institute manages research, training and consulting activities for a value of approximately 2 million Euros.
II. RESEARCH ACTIVITIES
Some projects

- The Duty of Care of International Organizations for their civilian personnel deployed to missions and assignments abroad. The research aims at exploring and clarifying the specific obligations of IOs as concerns the security, safety and health of civilian personnel that they send to assignments abroad.

- Dynamics of identity, economic transformations, strategic perspectives: the case of Piombino and Val di Cornia. A joint project of DIRPOLIS and the Institute of Management that studies the interaction between transformation processes and dynamics of identity.

- Reviewing Italy's Immigration Policy is a project of WISS, financed by the international foundation Open Society - Justice Initiative. It studies the national legislation on migration, with a specific reference to the topics of refoulement, criminal immigration law and detention conditions in CIE.

- “R.I.G.H.T.S. (Rights, Information, Governance, Health, Technology, Sciences) in the classifying society” aims at framing the main legal and ethical issues raised by the use of algorithms and classifications, mostly in the information society and its digital economy, in public and private surveillance and health related decisions. It also explores additional uses of algorithms and big data based problems solving to expand their role for public interest policies and individual empowerment.
Some projects

- International Law and Emergencies – The project is run in collaboration with Italian and foreign academics and experts in humanitarian assistance. It analyzes the institutional and legal context of the international disaster prevention and response system.

- ROBOLAW – A two-year project of DIRPOLIS and the Institute of Biorobotics, financed by the European Union in the framework of the 7FP, aimed to study the ethical and juridical implications of the emerging robotics technologies and to propose a legal framework for a future regulation.

- Permanent International Observatory on Personal Injury Damages - A project of LIDER Lab that since 2005 has been analyzing the acquisitions and the trends in this area derived from the Italian and European legislation, the jurisprudence and the medical, legal and insurance implications.

- Training for CSDP and UN personnel: recent challenges - The research focuses on an analysis of challenges in peacekeeping training for both the EU and the UN and on possible tools to enhance mission effectiveness and coherence.
II. RESEARCH ACTIVITIES

Some projects

- ANYWHERE – The project is aimed at developing tools to support decision makers in the real-time coordination of emergency management operations run in the context of extreme weather and climate events.

- Studying the acquisition of firearms by terrorists in Europe. The project focuses on the traceability of light firearms trade in Italy and its possible implications for terrorist activities.

- MARSOL - Demonstrating Managed Aquifer Recharge as a Solution to Water Scarcity and Drought – The project aims to demonstrate that Managed Aquifer Recharge (MAR) is a sound, safe and sustainable strategy that can be applied with great confidence and therefore offering a key approach for tackling water scarcity in Southern Europe.

- EU project Drug Policy Evaluation - Analysis of the supply chain and its criminal enterprise. Analysis of the drug market with focus on the offer of narcotic substances from EU neighbourhood countries.
Some of the PRIN Projects

- Identity, gender and religion in the European public space.

- Biopolitical governamentability: inclusion and happiness. Historical and conceptual genealogy, current challenges and future views of politics for individuals and society.

- The Italian Foreign Policy Facing New Challenges in the International System: Actors, Institutions and Policies – Coordination of research unit on unconventional threats.

- Renewable energies in multi-level governance in between subsidiarity, the market and solidarity.

- Study of the legal aspects concerning the qualification of water as a food with the aim to develop a legal theory of the fundamental right to water and define a suitable legal framework to ensure adequate quality and safety standards for drinking water.

- Study around the problematic issues related to the use of language as a factor of social and political integration in the education sector, with specific reference to linguistic minorities.

L'Istituto Dirpolis conduce ricerche innovative nei campi del diritto, dell'economia e delle scienze politiche. L'approccio multidisciplinare che le caratterizza permette una rappresentazione globale di fenomeni giuridici, politici, sociali ed economici assai complessi e favorisce la realizzazione di output di ricerca dall'alto profilo scientifico, direttamente applicabili da attori esterni con responsabilità decisionali a vario livello (internazionale, nazionale, regionale, locale). L'Istituto Dirpolis offre numerose attività di formazione sia a livello universitario che post-universitario, nelle quali integra i risultati dell'indagine scientifica condotta dal proprio corpo docente e ricercatore. Organizza inoltre percorsi di alta formazione in vari ambiti, rivolti a professionisti che vogliano accrescere le proprie conoscenze e competenze.

EDITORIALE
quando si esprime a favore o a sfavore del promotore di Dirpolis Informa, in certezza incerto dell’essere atto con scritti presenti - engage in a certain manner. Come espri, è il diritto a fronte di diritto, consentendo, consentendo, eventualmente limitandosi e permettendo di aggiornare al di lato, e non trasmissione, o mai solo semplici ingegni in mancanze formali di. Di qui l’idea che il più numeroso che si ritenga riconosciuto, più a ciò che l’acquisizione, per decidere in consenso riconoscimento e la redazione di un’altra del direttore, e nelle diverse. Dirpolis Informa nessun bene anche un modo per confondere: i rinvenimenti che non si limitano all’ambito dei materiali giudizi, sanità, problemi sociali oltre che un esercito di “comunicazione iontrattoriale” all’interno dell’Unione.

Il Consorzio di riconoscimento è composto da: Deodato Cini (Riflessioni ideaturali e sussidio del Diritto Universale); Silvia Cerini (Liceo Lazzati); Emanuele Tonozzi (CDD Lab) ed Elena Verri (Wiss Lab), che desidero ringraziare per il loro investimento.

Spettando che tutti voi non siano troppo coinvolte a popolare con dettagli e materiale questo periodo, vi auguro una buona lettura.

Dear Friends, Dear Co-leguage:
when you are able to read this is the first issue of "Dirpolis Informa" the biannually newsletter of the Institute within which we have been working for some activities, for some months. As you know, Dirpolis has many professors, researchers, students, administrators and workers, all of which are involved in a multitude of projects. Hence this need for a tool that can help us communicate on what we do, in order to foster mutual knowledge and to contribute strongly in making and research activities. The "Dirpolis Informa" aims to be a medium through which we can share and exchange the academic achievement we have individually and collectively achieved, as well as to build on this basis for mutual communication within the Institute.

The editorial committee is currently made up of: Deodato Cini (Institute’s Office for Promotion and Communication Activities); Silvia Cerini (Liceo Lazzati); Emanuele Tonozzi (CDD Lab) and Elena Verri (Wiss Lab). I wish to sincerely thank them for their work.

Writing that you will still play an active part in providing news and information for future issues of this newsletter. I wish you a happy reading.
